

Hostile Living Environment or Harassment:

Using the ResNet to defame, harass, intimidate or threaten any other person (resident, or nonresident) is prohibited. The University Harassment policy covers all uses of the ResNet, including e-mail correspondences, newsgroups, and social networks. Posting materials on electronic bulletin boards that violate existing laws or the University's codes of conduct are also prohibited. Attempting to monitor or tamper with another user's electronic communications, or reading, copying, changing, or deleting another user's files or software without the explicit agreement of the owner is illegal.

Implying University or Student Housing Endorsement:

Users shall not imply University or Student Housing endorsement of products, services, or individuals on any electronic communication without prior written approval. Users shall not give the impression that the user is representing, giving opinions, or otherwise making statements on behalf of the University or Student Housing unless authorized in writing to do so.

Copyright Infringement:

Transmission of any copyrighted materials, such as but not limited to music, movies, books, software, any other written or digital medium without the express consent of the copyright holder is in direct violation of the 1998 Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA) and University rules and regulations. The term “transmission” includes, but is not limited to:

- Peer to Peer file transfer programs (i.e. Kazaa, Gnutella, Limewire, bit torrent, etc...)
- Media Servers (i.e. Microsoft Media Sharing, iTunes streaming, etc...)
- Electronic Posting (i.e. blogging, newsgroups, etc...)
- Social Networking (i.e. MySpace, Facebook, Yahoo 360, etc...)

Use of the aforementioned services is permitted, provided the user is in compliance with University, St11.6(iTc -0.006ehc)12

